

Ian C. Wiskoff

CAREER OBJECTIVE

To be part of a dynamic learning environment that utilizes technology in innovating ways, furthering student progress according to their individual needs and individual learning styles

SKILL SET

*Social Studies and Art Education (grades 5-9), Windows and OS X, Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite
Corel Painter, Pre- Press Techniques, Print Screen
Color Separation, Traditional Drawing and Painting*

EDUCATION

American Public University

December 2009-August 2011

Master's Degree completed with Honors August 2011
Major: National Security Studies and Intelligence Analysis, GPA 4.0
Three-time member of the APUS Presidents Honors List
Member of Delta Epsilon Tau Honor Society
Current member of the APUS Alumni Mentor Program

New York Institute of Technology

2002-2003 Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree Awarded December 2003

Major: Computer Graphics and Computer-Generated Animation
Dean's List four consecutive semesters; graduated Magna Cum Laude

School of Visual Arts

1990-1992

Major: Illustration and Cartooning
Focus on Storyboarding and Sequential Imagery Layout and Design

WORK EXPERIENCE

Boca Raton community Middle School 7th Grade Civics and art club teacher

August 2017 -Present

7th grade civics teacher responsible for educating public school students about Civics, history and US government. In addition to educating middle schoolers about the workings and mechanism of the Federal government, I am tasked with preparing students for the required Florida standardized end of course test.

Creator and educator of the after-school art and design club, teaching students the skills necessary to design their own characters, environments and stories so they may create their own unique comic books, sequential art and descriptive illustrations.

Armory Art Center www.armoryart.org

July 2017 -Present

Adjunct faculty responsible for the designing and running of the teen digital art and design program. Responsibilities include creating teaching curriculum for educating teens about the applications of digital design programs (such as photoshop) to create their own original works of art. Taught during the 2017 July summer camp session and upcoming 2018 session, as well as conducted weekly night classes through the fall, winter of 2017 and the spring of 2018.

WorldNet Media www.worldnetjobs.com

September 2007 -Present

Team leader for photographic retouching and web-based imagery department. Responsible for timely and accurate updating of graphics and visual components for several large international websites as well as the preparation and production of printed materials. Drafted departmental procedural manual. Duties include interviewing and training new employees, as well as exploring new techniques to increase departmental efficiency, interdepartmental communication and increase production quality.

Pavlik Design www.pavlikdesign.com

July- 2007- May 2008

Contract illustrator and renderer for numerous CAD created plans for commercial and retail spaces.

Interactive Arts Services www.storyboardsonline.com

February 2005- July 2007

Digital Illustrator and colorist responsible for creation of high-end imagery for animation and print. Contributed to the development of storyboards and animations used to create televised commercials for domestic and international clients.

Kingsborough Community College

June 2001- June 2004

Continuing Education Photoshop instructor
Full time senior lab technician for art department
Director of maintenance for graphics computer systems
Assistant to gallery curator; preparing shows and publicly attended functions
Web graphics specialist responsible for look and appeal of college website.

United States Army Infantry/New York National Guard

June 1997-September 2002 2001

Active Service- Honorably Discharged- DD214 Available UPON REQUEST

Advanced to the rank of E-4 (Specialist)

Assigned as Command Group official artist, Camp Hovey, Republic of Korea

Illustrator for Army Department of Public Affairs, Fort Riley, Kansas 1998

Awarded two Army Commendation Medals, as well as the Good Conduct Medal.

New York National Guard-Assigned to 342nd FSB in Brooklyn, New York

Platoon team leader to a unit of first responders to the 9/11 attacks in 2001 Awarded Governor's Citation for Service

Beyond The Basics:

-Happily married local resident and active community member

-Father to two wonderful little girls, caretaker of our nephew, a Corgi and Akita rescue dog

-Published author in the ABC-CLIO Encyclopedia: Germany at War: A History of the German Army from the Thirty Years War to Afghanistan

-Chosen as illustrator of the month June 2007 for Imagine FX magazine

- Frequently creating logos, apparel graphics, web-ready imagery, and illustrations for numerous local schools, and national business

-Passionate about science and history

-Dark Sky Member- Amateur Astronomer

- Member of National Association of Photoshop Professionals

<http://members.photoshouser.com/>

-member of Lynda.com Professional Development for Creatives

-Personal and professional recommendations available upon request